AT THE Annual Spring Rally at Accomac, Va. the semi-dedication of the Mary Nottingham Smith High School occurred. This dedication marked an epoch of secondary education for Negroes in Accomac County. Mrs. Smith (Mary E. Nottingham, '01) has been Jeanes Supervisor for Accomac County for a long time and has worked hard to improve the schools in that county. The first year of high school was organized a few years ago and a strenuous effort is being made to have an accredited high school in the county.
