Description

An instructor's guide, slide deck, and video on animal and human studies considerations in publication ethics.

Body

This module is part of a series of seven teaching modules designed to promote best practices in publication ethics for life scientists and biomedical engineers who publish research papers. This module helps students learn about the roles of IACUCs and IRBs, determine the information that should be included in a manuscript to increase the reproducibility of the research, and create a plan for training their future students about publishing studies involving animals or humans.
